This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be sustained.

The record indicates that on February 14, 2002, the obligor posted a $15,000 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated June 19, 2003, was sent to the co-obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice demanded the bonded alien's surrender into the custody of an officer of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) at 10:30 a.m. on July 8, 2003, at [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On July 9, 2003, the field office director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the language in Exhibit G of the Amwest/Reno Settlement Agreement entered into on June 22, 1995 by the legacy Immigration and Naturalization Service and Far West Surety Insurance Company requires the field office director to state a correct purpose on the Form I-340. Counsel asserts that a correct statement of purpose can only be satisfied by the statement of a single unambiguous purpose.

The Settlement Agreement requires the Form I-340 to state the correct purpose for which the alien is to be produced. The evidence reflects that the obligor was required to "surrender such aliens(s) into the interview of an officer...for deportation" at the time and place specified in the notice. However, this statement of purpose is unclear, does not reflect the correct purpose for which the alien is to be produced, and therefore does not meet the requirement of the Settlement Agreement.

Based on the provisions of the Settlement Agreement and the fact that the Form I-340 did not state a correct purpose, the appeal will be sustained. The field office director's decision declaring the bond breached will be rescinded and the bond will be continued in full force and effect.

ORDER: The appeal is sustained. The field office director's decision declaring the bond breached is rescinded and the bond is continued in full force and effect.
